RE: “Untangling the Confusion Surrounding Kansas Agricultural Leases” with McCurdy Auction
FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATELY

DODGE CITY – With the help of Ty Patton, General Counsel & Auctioneer at McCurdy Auction, WKMA is offering a seminar on the hidden ins-and-outs of Kansas rural leases. “Untangling the Confusion Surrounding Kansas Agricultural Leases,” will be presented on Friday, March 19 at 3 p.m. in the Presentation Area.

Attendees can learn more by visiting McCurdy Auction online at www.mccurdyauction.com or stopping by their exhibit in space I-323 during the 2021 3i SHOW, March 18-20!

More than half of Kansas farmland or pastureland is rented, and many of those leases are unwritten or verbal. During his presentation, Patton will explain how this can sometimes pose an issue for landowners when they prepare to sell their real estate if they aren’t familiar with the unique aspects of Kansas landlord tenant law as it applies to farm and pasture leases.

Made up of nearly 30 real estate, marketing, legal and accounting professionals — McCurdy Auction offers the experience and expertise to perform every task necessary for your real estate and personal property needs. With nearly 500 auctions conducted in 2020 alone, McCurdy Auction has built an efficient, proven system for successfully selling and obtaining optimal prices for their clients.

The presentation is free and open to anyone attending the 3i SHOW at the Western State Bank Expo Center in Dodge City, Kan. For events in the Presentation Area, seating will be spread out in a larger area at the back of the WSBE concrete floor. The larger area will allow those from the same household to sit together and provide more space between rows.
